

Start

Prompt user for array size, allow user input, then allow user to input each integer value.

Create recursive math function using this formula:
Array of user input integer [user input array size] + user input array size(Array of user input integer, user input array size - 1. To find sum.

Output sum total.

End